Party of Concord Men Barely Escape Death

Automobile Breaks Through Ice in Dangerous Channel Between Governor's and Eagle Island

A fishing party from Concord nearly ended in tragedy Saturday afternoon when the car in which H. W. Smith, Harry Smith and George Matoce of that city were travelling in went to the bottom of Lake Winnepesaukee.

The party was crossing the lake and when between Governor's and Eagle islands about 75 yards off the shore of the latter without warning the car sank through the ice. The men were able to escape from the car before it disappeared below the surface and managed with difficulty to reach firm ice. The walked the remainder of the way across the ice to The Weirs and were brought by motor to this city.

The channel between Governor's and Eagle islands is dangerous as there is a swift current through this narrow opening. The ice seldom reaches any great thickness there except in unusually cold weather and that place is regarded as treacherous by experienced winter lake travelers. Evidently the members of the Concord party were unfamiliar with certain parts of the lake.

MINISTERS MEET

The many friends of Kenneth Hawkins, formerly of Laconia, will regret to learn of his sudden death which took place Saturday at West Point Military Academy, where he was a student, as the result of pneumonia. He was 18 years of age, being among the youngest students to graduate from Pinkerton Academy in the class of '24.
He entered West Point in July of the past year and was making rapid progress and it is with feelings of sadness that his passing is noted. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hawkins and three sisters survive him. After a military service at the academy, a quiet funeral was held from the home at Derry Tuesday of this week.

REV. R. E. ANDREWS

Rev. R. E. Andrews of Moulton street, Lakeport, died at the Laconia hospital Tuesday morning at 11:30.
Rev. Mr. Andrews had held Congregational pastorates at East Andover, Bartlett, and Bath in this state. For some time he had been in failing health.
The funeral was held Thursday morning at 10:30 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. V. Sanborn of High street. Rev. Rodney W. Roundy, pastor of the Congregational Church, conducted the service, assisted by Rev.
Edward H. Stevens of Concord.

The body was placed in the tomb at the Union cemetery.

MINISTERS MEET

The ministers and their wives of this city and surrounding countryside gathered in Laconia Monday for a social occasion which was held in the vestry of the Congregational church. Edward R. Stearns of Concord, secretary of the Congregational conference, gave a

Women Voters of City Hold Annual Meeting

Laconia Unit of New Hampshire League of Women Voters Elect Mrs.
E. P. Thompson Chairman

The annual meeting of the Laconia Unit of the New Hampshire League of Women Voters was held Sunday afternoon, February 21, at the home of Mrs. Ada F. Roberts, 150 Pleasant street. The officers and committees for the coming year are as follows: Chairman, Mrs. E. P. Thompson; first vice-chairman, Mrs. James P. Lydiard; second vice-chairman, Miss Mary L.
Chase; third vice-chairman, Mrs. Emma McGloughlin; secretary, Mrs. Jesse Day; treasurer, Mrs. Ada F. Roberts; directors, Mrs. George B. Cox, Mrs. Lilian R. Webster, Miss Sarah F. Merill; chairman of membership committee, Miss Mary L. Chase; chairman finance committee, Mrs. Ada F. Roberts; chairman of junior work, Mrs. Emma McGloughlin; chairman efficiency government, Mrs. Lester Sanborn; chairman international co-operation, Mrs. C.
Lougee; chairman public welfare, Mrs. Frank Sullivan.

Meetings will be held every four weeks, the fourth Wednesday of each month at 7:30 P. M. at the Council chambers until further notice.

The Laconia unit is a branch of the New Hampshire State League of Women Voters. The object of this organization is to focus the attention on the state and to support good government, improve legislation and law enforcement and to urge everyone in the state to become an enrolled voter. But as an organization it is not to be allied with or support any political party. The league will be concerned with matters of civic welfare.

At the close of the business session refreshments of sandwiches, cake, nuts and candy were served by the hostess.

WELL ATTENDED MEETING

The meeting Thursday evening of the Church Institute which was held in the Congregational church assembly room was largely attended. There were nearly 100 people who sat down to the supper at 6:30 o'clock. A feature of the evening was community singing under the direction of Clarence Dana Mooney. Following the sessions of the three classes, Rev. Rodney W. Roundy spoke on "The Hopeful Church."

GETTING AN EARLY START

Another amusing happening of spring is the report that pigeons, lifelong residents of E. P. Thompson's barn in the south part of the city, have laid their eggs for this season's squab production. Pigeons may look dumb but they never take chances with the seasons and it is believed that never before has the spring egg laying been undertaken as early as this year. It maybe that even the pigeons are being fooled but we hope not.

Noted Pastor Will Speak in Laconia

Dr. William I. Stidger to Deliver Address in High School Auditorium March 6

Possibly Dr. William I. Stidger, better known as "Bill" Stidger to all Detroit, is the best advertised Methodist Episcopal minister in the United States.
"By his works" he has become justly famous. A big, red blooded, two flated preacher, he prides himself on being a regular fellow and a comrade to his people. His career is interesting. He paid his way through college, doing newspaper work. During the war he drove a truck on the front lines. Directly following the amistice, he made a 50,000 mile trip through the Orient and Near East, writing human interest stories for a syndicate of magazines and newspapers. He has contributed articles to many of the leading periodicals, but is perhaps better known as the biographer of Henry Ford.

Saint Mark's of Detroit is his third pastorate. Starting with an attendance of 300, four years ago, the audience has grown to 5000 each Sunday.
From a membership of 500, the church membership has increased to 2800. Two policemen are regularly assigned by the Detroit police department to handle the crowds when he preaches.

The distinctive church methods which he originated are today used by more than 2000 preachers of every denomination.

He is a great orator. He knows psychology of human beings, he knows the laughter, the tragedy, the hopes of life, out of the richness of unusual and varied experiences and years of globe trotting he thrills his listeners. He is scheduled to lecture here on March 6, in the Laconia High School auditorium, under the auspices of the Laconia High School Students' Association.

Lakeport

The regular meeting of the Lakeport Woman's Club will be held Thursday afternoon, March 5, at 3:00 o'clock in Pythian parlors. Mrs. Ella McLaughlin, head of the home economics department at the University of New Hampshire, will present the program and an interesting afternoon is assured.
Tea will be served under the direction of the executive board. Members who are in arrears for dues are kindly requested to come prepared to pay the same at this meeting and thereby aid the club very materially in meeting its requirements.

The regular meeting of the Lakeport W. C. T. U. will be held Tuesday afternoon, March 3, at 3:30 in the vestry of the United Baptist Church. The topic will be "Citizenship."

A Past Noble Grand Association of Lakeport was recently formed and the following officers elected: President, Mrs. Effie Stetson; vice-president, Mrs.
Hannah Mooney; secretary, Mrs.
Gladys Gauthier; treasurer, Mrs. Stella Philbrick. It was voted to hold the meetings on the fourth Monday evening of each month, except July and August. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Stella Phil-brick, Clark avenue. The members
